BUTLER NATIONAL CORPORATION
ANNOUNCES AWARD OF JUNCTION CITY - CITY COMMERCE CENTER DESIGN CONTRACT

Olathe, Kansas, March 13, 2007 - Butler National Corporation (OTC Bulletin Board "BUKS") announces BCS Design Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary, has been awarded a contract to design a new City Commerce Center for the city of Junction City, KS. The facility will be approximately 40,000 square feet and among its many uses, will house the Chamber of Commerce, military offices, and a daycare center for city and local hospital employees. The design contract is scheduled for completion by mid to late summer 2007 and is a very important engagement for BCS in its efforts to assist Junction City and Geary County and the expansion of Fort Riley.

This design contract is BCS Design's second project in Junction City. BCS Design is currently on schedule to complete construction of fourteen townhouses in Junction City by April 1, 2007. These townhouses are two-story, three bedroom, two-and-a-half bath homes with a single car garage. Sales of the townhouses are currently underway.

Jeff Shinkle, President of BCS Design, Inc., said, "This is another great opportunity for BCS Design. The design of the City Commerce Center is a significant contract and will serve as an additional focal point of commerce for Junction City. We are excited we have been selected to design this facility."

"We are nearing completion of the townhouses and are expecting brisk sales of these units once completed. These townhouses will provide a great housing alternative to both residents of Junction City as well as troops returning from overseas."
